

As a paying telephone customer I have the right to say who contacts me thru the telephone. I do not want to be annoyed by people who choose to invade my privacy with annoying telephone solication. Please do not give in to these moochers, who do not know how to take no for an answer, and pray on the weak elderly.